

Baseball teams pointing to the playoffs

Prather has been a dominant catcher with sophomore Cam Enberg ably backing him up. "Hideki does it all – throwing, catching, blocking the plate and he swings the bat well. He's very smart and calls a very good game."

Palamountain at short-stop has been very solid.

Freshman infielder Miles Clayton who backs up at second, short and third has been the surprise of the team. "Miles has done a great job and has been able to handle things. Our outfield with Adam Harper in left, Connor Fritch in right and Max Rittman and Scott Linden sharing centerfield have been playing well."

Unlike many other teams, there are multi-sport athletes on the team with Rittman, Fritch, Godfrey, Zach Anderson, and Brendan Comerford having all played football for Campolindo. "We have an interesting dynamic with our football players. They've played a limited amount of baseball, but I'm not surprised to see them come out here and compete. They're really good athletes. It takes them a little while to get up and running but they have become main contributors to us."

Luckhurst is looking for continuity for the last eight games of the season. "It's a matter of seeing who's stepping up and who can stay healthy and contribute so that we can keep the best players together on the field," Luckhurst said. "At one point, we played one with six guys out with the flu. The key to be successful the rest of the year will be staying healthy. The idea is to start playing back into the year and then head into NCS. You use the year to figure that out and then be ready to go at the end."
