Correction, "MOFD, FAIR Meet To Discuss Fire Service," 02/17/10, page L1:
 Manuel Navarro, vice president of EMS development for AMR, stated that if the City of Orinda breaks away and contracts with ConFire, the AMR must contract through Contra Costa County (not Con Fire as stated in the print version of the article), not the city, therefore leaving it up to the County's EMS Agency to determine any service levels. This article has been corrected on-line

Talk of the Towns

By Sophie Braccini, Andrea Firth and Cathy Tyson
 On the evening of February 11, the governments of Lafayette, Moraga and Orinda met at the Lafayette Library and Learning Center to share perspectives. Three issues were covered: the Police Services Study that was commissioned by Lafayette and Orinda; Revenue Enhancement options/ballot measures; and Downtown Revitalization efforts.

Campolindo Wins DFAL
Miramonte, Acalanes Should See Post-season Action
 By Conrad Bassett
 Last Tuesday night, the Acalanes Dons boys' basketball team brought their 7-1 DFAL record and five-game win streak into Moraga for a rematch against first place Campolindo. The Dons hot streak did not help them against the Cougars as they lost, 57-40. read online
