

Independent, locally owned and operated!

www.lamorindaweekly.com 925-377-0977

Published December 2nd, 2015

Most Frequently Viewed Stories From Our Last Issue

LAMORINDA WEEKLY
Independent, locally owned and operated!
www.lamorindaweekly.com 925-377-0977

Home | Archive | Advertise | Contact | Submit | Subscribe

Civic Life Sports Schools Business Food Our Homes Letters/Opinions Calendar Obituaries

Dover Saddlery Offers Everything Equine at New Moraga Store - and Horses are Welcome
By Sophie Bracconi
More local businesses are becoming dog friendly, but Dover Saddlery, which opened its 30th retail store in Moraga Friday, Nov. 13, has gone a step farther - with horses. Patrons can bring their horse to the store at 444 Center Street, so equipment can be selected and tried on the spot.
"We offer services in our stores that Bay Area clients are now going to be able to take advantage of," said Janet Nettmann, head of corporate communications at Dover Saddlery, a leader in equestrian equipment. "We have a test -- read

Lady Mats Secure First NCS Title in 17 Years
By Spencer Silva
After a 17-year drought, the Meramonte Lady Mats (21-5) finally won the NCS Division II water polo championship. On Saturday, Nov. 14, the Mats ended rival Campolindo's hunt for its fourth consecutive NCS -- read

Campo Ends Drake's Bid for Perfect Season in NCS Final
By Emily Guzman
It was a steal, a mad scramble for a loose ball, and the bleachers erupting as time expired that sealed the deal for the Campolindo Cougars, who beat No. 1 seed St. Francis Drake (29-1) 5-4 in the North Coast -- read

Walking to School
By Emily Guzman
We all heard the stories growing up: "Don't complain about it! I had to walk 10 miles uphill both ways to get to school when I was your age, through 10 feet of snow!" For many Lamorinda parents, carpooling and -- read

Young Cancer Patient Impacts MOFD Firefighter
By Alex Korman
A 6-year old girl marched up to the fire engine parked at the Moraga Fear Festival, dragging her brother and baby sister directly toward firefighter-paramedic Lucas Lambert. "Some kids are shy, some are -- read

Letters to the Editor
Editor:
Imagine, if developers of Rancho Laguna II and Summerhill Homes (building projects in Moraga) were planning developments that would cause noise, animal odor and become a breeding place for flies, pests and vermin. I think most Moraga citizens would object strenuously. This is exactly what is being planned in the farm animal ordinance being submitted to the Town Council on November 18. It is not planned for new developments, it is being planned for the other side of all of our backyard fences.
A survey of backyard chicken owners, done by UC Davis School of Veterinary Medicine in 2013, lists complaints by neighbors: complaints --

Lafayette
Editor:
Downtown Congestion Reduction Study Kicks Off
By Cathy Tyson
It is no secret to city leaders that traffic and congestion are unfortunately a growing problem in Lafayette, and appear to be getting worse. Looking to address these complex issues, city leaders obtained -- read

Moraga
Editor:
Is the Moraga Zoning Code Adequate?
Moraga residents have tried more than once to stop developments, using design guidelines from the municipal code, citing inconsistencies with a neighborhood as in the case of Hatfield Place, or attempting to -- read

Orinda
Editor:
Petition Highlights Burgeoning Demand to Improve Downtown Vitality
By Victor Ryerson
A petition to create a more vibrant downtown, signed by nearly 700 Orinda residents, was presented to the City Council Nov. 3 in what may be the beginning of a groundswell of demand to change Orinda's aging -- read

Construction Set to Begin on First Stage of Pumping Plant
By Cathy Tyson
Job number one for the new East Bay Municipal Utility District Dublin

Is the Town Ready for Winter and Spring Rain?
By Sophie Bracconi
The latest data on El Niño continues to show it is still on track to be the strongest in recorded history, with maximum impact in California expected from January to March.

We print and deliver 26,000 copies every other week!

- Lamorinda Family Roots Run Deep in Local Pools
- Young Cancer Patient Impacts MOFD Firefighter
- Campo Sweeps DFAL Cross Country Championships
- Lady Mats Secure First NCS Title in 17 Years
- Lynn's Top Five Year End Tax Planning Ideas
- Dover Saddlery Offers Everything Equine at New Moraga Store - and Horses are Welcome
- Crossroads' Restaurant Scene Changing
- Moraga School District Gives Math Intervention Priority Over Extended Kindergarten
- Downtown Congestion Reduction Study Kicks Off
- The Del Monicas: A Family of Hatters

Reach the reporter at: info@lamorindaweekly.com

back

Copyright © Lamorinda Weekly, Moraga CA