Page: B2

LAMORINDA WEEKLY

www.lamorindaweekly.com

Wednesday, August 15, 2012

redeem your McDonnell bucks today

family owned since 1933

Trees · Shrubs · Vines · Annuals · Perennials Vegetables · Containers · Statuary & Fountains Indoor Plants • Decorative Items

www.mcdonnellnursery.com 196 Moraga Way • Orinda • (925) 254-3713 • Open Daily

JV LUCAS PAVING, INC. CA LIC#195560

WE'RE GIVING AWAY A 5A VACATION GET-A-WAY EACH WEEK!

925-377-0977 Veterans Offer Hope, Extend Hand of Friendship

By Laurie Snyder

Lafayette resident and U.S. Navy veteran David Lipscomb (right) demonstrates a woodworking planing technique to former Army medic Mia Photo Ohlen Alexander Guerts.

Timilitary campaign was gram in preparation for medical launched recently on a hot, dry, August morning in Lamorinda. prior action – some just recently in Iraq and Afghanistan. This time, though, the staging area was the Orinda Library.

Returning Veterans of America (RVA), a non-profit organization co-founded in 2011 by current-era combat veterans, presented its first Welcome Home event on Saturday August 11 to thank men and women for their service to the nation and help them connect with resources proven to ease their transition from war to peace.

conjoining towns are the gateway to the largest population density of veterans in California," said Jason Deitch, Ph.D., RVA's Director of Community Development and Clinical Operations, and former Army Ranger who founded the Cal Veterans Group at the University of California, Berkeley in 2004. Deitch "designs, seeks out and implements streamlined methods for accessing benefits for returning veterans provide positive peer mentor-different kind of American lecular and cellular biology proschool.

All three know first-hand how Many in attendance had seen overwhelming the return to civilian life can be; all three knew that they could be of service to others still in the process of transitioning. "We've made it; so you can you," is their message.

Berg envisions RVA as an outreach arm for the many agencies the average veteran is expected to negotiate at the county and federal levels. "There are barriers in their official capacities," he said of Veterans Affairs personnel who often fail to connect effectively with those they are charged with assisting. Those barriers can "Orinda, Lafayette and their make men and women reluctant to reach out once they've been let down.

Attendees at RVA's first social and luncheon event, which was presented in partnership with the Contra Costa County Library and the U.S. Institute of Library and Museum Services, received realtime Veterans Affairs claims processing help, and were welcome to spend time swapping stories and hanging out in a video gameequipped lounge at the Orinda Liof the U.S. Military," according to brary. They also worked with RVA's web site, and works "to experienced vets one-on-one to get resume and job search advice, and explore new opportunities for personal growth in programs such as the woodworking group offered by Lafayette resident Tim A former Bechtel contractor the Lamorinda area have per- who toiled in Iraq's much publiformed military service. RVA, he cized "green zone," Killian has an said, is "trying to galvanize the intimate understanding of the toll that working in high stress envinesses, healthcare providers and ronments can take on the human service agencies most likely to be spirit. His club, which includes in a position to guide veterans on Lafayette resident and U.S. Navy veteran David Lipscomb and sev-Ryan Berg, Deitch's colleague eral other volunteers, is partnerand RVA's Executive Director ing with RVA to teach vets the basics of woodworking. Killian hopes to teach vets the higher saw action as an Infantry Marine level of craftsmanship needed to Deitch spoke enthusiastically Army at the age of 18. After com- of Killian's program saying that, pleting training as a medic, she in the very peaceful and quiet setwas sent to Wiesbaden, Germany ting afforded, veterans experience and then Iraq, and later decided to a transformation as they are

TO SAY "THANK YOU" TO OUR COMMUNITY, WE'RE HAVING A SPECIAL PROMOTION FOR EVERY ONE! COME IN TO ENTER ... YOU MAY BE OUR WEEKLY WINNER!

Brad & Gloria. 5A's Managers

VISIT 5A AND ENTER TO WIN:

 A NIGHT FOR 2
BREAKFAST FOR 2
ALL RELATED TAXES AT OVER 950 PARTICIPATING MARRIOTT * LOCATIONS WHAT A WONDERFUL, FREE, 5A VACATION GET-A-WAY!

PLUS...SAVE 25% OFF MANY SELECT STORAGE UNITS, PRICES HOLD FOR 3 MONTHS!

Marrioll # is not a sponsor or co-sponsor of this promotion ship."

The support of residents in Lafayette, Moraga and Orinda is so important, said Deitch, because 10 percent of all males Killian. above the age of 18 in and around cooperation" of the local busitheir new journeys.

and founder of Diablo Valley College's Student Veterans Group, stationed 20 kilometers south of create quality, handmade furni-Baghdad. Berg's RVA co- ture for resale. founder, Mia Guerts, entered the become an Army doctor, tackling "watching something being crethe tough curricula of Cal's mo- ated, not destroyed."

If you're a veteran – or if you simply love or admire one - be sure to turn out for RVA's next program at the Orinda Library August 25 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Veterans of all ages are welcome, and vets from Iraq and Afghanistan are particularly encouraged to attend. Contact RVA for directions from BART or instructions on where park if you plan to drive: to www.returningvet.org.

Submit stories and story ideas to storydesk@lamorindaweekly.com

RHEEN

CENTER RHEEM BLVD