Residents get to rock out on 'Make Music Day'

What's better than karaoke? Live karaoke of course and, to celebrate "Make Music Day" residents will have their chance to belt out a song with a live band to back them up.

Local musician Paul Cotruvo will be at the Lafayette Library and Learning Center Amphitheatre 6-8 p.m. on June 21 with his band, The Flashbacks, waiting to play backup - there will be 100 songs from the 60s to choose from. Aspiring rock stars can pick a song and sign up to be the lead singer.

Make Music is a free celebration of music around the world on June 21. Launched in 1982 in France as the Fête de la Musique, it is now held on the same day in more than 750 cities in 120 countries. - Pippa Fisher
